"Mr. ſpeaker, and gentlemen of the commons houſe of aſſembly.

THOUGH I have been already diſappointed in my hopes that you would provide for various ſervices, which have occaſionally required your aid; though you have diſregarded an application of mine, made to you in conſequence of the king's orders, that a temporary line ſhould be run, which orders were the effect of your own ſolicitations, by your agent; yet it is my duty to acquaint you, that his majeſty does, by his miniſters, eſpecially recommend to the legiſlature of this province, the eſtabliſhing in a body a certain number of French proteſtants, who are actually arrived here, well verſed in the culture of ſilk and wines, and, who will, in all probability, if encouraged, be followed by many more: the ſettling them as a diſtinct colony is moſt likely to anſwer the end of introducing new commodities into this province, as well as moſt conformable to his majeſty's intentions; but without your aſſiſtance it is impoſſible to effect it: the ſeaſon is advanced, the land is to be ſurveyed, and they are not only without proviſions, but the means of purchaſing them, for the ſhip has a claim to the bounty allowed by the province for paſſage. I have a pleaſure in conſidering the opportunity now offered you of imitating the benevolence of our gracious ſovereign, who has condeſcended to take theſe unfortunate people under his particular protection.

April 23*d*, 1764. THOMAS BOONE."

Which meſſage was accompanied with an extract of a letter from the right honourable the lords commiſſioners of trade and plantations. 'Till this day, a ſufficient number of members of aſſembly to make a houſe, had not met; and then it was immediately reſolved, "That, (as ſoon as they could conſiſtently "do it with their former reſolutions) they would take into "their conſideration the ſaid meſſage, &c."—24th, The members of aſſembly went to their ſeveral homes.—The ſame day, the SOUTH-CAROLINA incorporated SOCIETY held their anniverſary meeting, and elected Peter Manigault, Eſq; ſteward, John Chapman and Daniel Doyley, Eſqrs. wardens, Mr. John Neufville, treaſurer; Samuel Prioleau, Eſq; clerk; and Meſſrs. John Stevenſon, and Thomas Lind, conſtables.—28th, His excellency governor BOONE took his paſſage for England, in the ſhip Dorſet, capt. *Chriſt. "Honourable gentlemen of his majeſty's council,

Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the aſſembly

THE warm ſeaſon of the year being now far advanced, I ſhall decline laying any other buſineſs before you than what requires your moſt immediate conſideration.

Several very beneficial laws, whoſe exiſtence depends upon the continuation of this ſeſſions, will deſerve your care and attention.

The increaſe of bounty given as an inducement for poor proteſtants to become ſettlers here will ceaſe in July next; the good intentions of that act have been already in ſome meaſure anſwered, by the introduction of many valuable inhabitants amongſt us; and as the knowledge and induſtry of perſons verſed in manufactures and parts of agriculture at preſent new to us, will be of ſingular advantage to the trade of Great-Britain, and the ſecurity as well as proſperity of this province. I cannot but earneſtly recommend them to your further encouragement.

The bleſſings we enjoy from the peace procured by the ſucceſs of his majeſty's arms and the wiſdom of his council, ſhould by no means render us inattentive to thoſe dictates which a prudent regard to our general tranquility obviouſly ſuggeſts; a becoming vigilance may effectually prevent thoſe dangers which an indolent ſecurity will otherwiſe invite. The militia law will not therefore eſcape your notice, an amendment of which, in ſome reſpects, I am perſuaded you will find neceſſary, to make it of more real uſe

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

I have ordered the public-treaſurer to lay before you the accounts of the public debts incurred ſince the laſt tax-act, and deſire that proviſion may be made for the ſame.

Honourable Gentlemen,

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

Your deliberations will I hope be attended with diſpatch, as the king's ſervice and the welfare of the province will be thereby promoted; and you may aſſure yourſelves of my moſt ready concurrence in any ſteps taken for thoſe purpoſes

23*d May*, 1764. WILLIAM BULL."

24th, The following addreſſes were preſented to his honour.

"To the honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; lieutenant governor and commander in chief in and over the ſaid province.

The humble addreſs of the upper houſe of aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your honour,

WE his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the council of this province, met in General Aſſembly return our ſincere thanks to your honour for your ſpeech delivered to both houſes yeſterday.

The ſeveral beneficial laws which are now near expiring, as they demand, ſo they will not fail to meet with our utmoſt care and attention.

The advantages that have already ariſen from the act for the encouragement of poor proteſtants to become ſettlers in this province, are too apparent not to evince the propriety of a proſecution of ſuch meaſures as will tend to induce greater numbers of thoſe valuable and uſeful ſubjects to become reſidents amongſt us.

While we are fully ſenſible of the happineſs derived to us from his Majeſty's auſpicious reign, we muſt think ourſelves inexcuſable, if, through our indolence or inattention, any opportunity ſhould be loſt of improving or ſecuring to ourſelves the bleſſings we enjoy from the peace procured by the ſucceſs of his arms, and the wiſdom of his councils; and we aſſure your honour, that in our deliberations upon any meaſures that appear neceſſary for thoſe purpoſes, we ſhall exert that circumſpection and aſſiduity which their importance will deſerve.

The neceſſity for diſpatch in carrying on the public buſineſs is very obvious; and your honour may depend upon our hearty and ready concurrence in every meaſure that will be conducive to the honour and intereſt of his majeſty, or the welfare and proſperity of the province. By order of the houſe,

In the upper-houſe of aſſembly, OTHNIEL BEALE, ſpeaker.
May 24*th*, 1764. "

"To the honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; lieutenant-governor, and commander in chief, in and over his majeſty's province of South-Carolina.

The humble addreſs of the commons houſe of aſſembly of the ſaid province.

May it pleaſe your honour,

WE his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects the commons houſe of aſſembly, of the province of South-Carolina, beg leave to return our thanks to your honour for your ſpeech delivered to this houſe yeſterday.

Permit us to congratulate your honour upon your re-aſſuming the government of this province, and to expreſs our ſatisfaction at an event in which we are ſo materially concerned, as we are very ſure your honour will never attempt to deprive us of any of our juſt rights and privileges, which have been ſo lately and repeatedly violated.

Though the ſeaſon of the year be far advanced, and it is at this time extremely inconvenient to attend in Charles-Town, we ſhall with the utmoſt chearfulneſs take under our conſideration ſuch laws as are now near expiring, and are proper to be continued: and we ſhall endeavour to employ this time of peace and tranquility, in ſuch manner as may redound to the honour of his Majeſty, and the good of the province

Your honor may be aſſured, that we ſhall make ample proviſion for the public debts; and we doubt not that our deliberations will be attended with diſpatch, eſpecially as the great obſtacle to the king's ſervice, and the welfare of the province, is removed. By order of the houſe,

RAWLINS LOWNDES, Speaker.

In the commons houſe of aſſembly,

May 24, 1764.

The Lieutenant-Governor's anſwer to the council's addreſs.

"Honourable gentlemen,

I Return you my hearty thanks for this addreſs. I receive great pleaſure, and hope the happieſt effects, from the aſſurance you give me that your deliberations ſhall be conducted with diſpatch to whatever may be conducive to the honour and intereſt of the crown, and the welfare and proſperity of this province. WILLIAM BULL.

May 24, 1764.

His honour's anſwer to the addreſs of the commons houſe of aſſembly.

"Mr. ſpeaker and gentlemen,

I Return you my cordial thanks for this addreſs; and I aſſure you, that the ſatisfaction you are pleaſed to expreſs at my re-aſſuming the adminiſtration of this government, is the more acceptable to me, as it will render my duty and my conſtant endeavours, to ſerve this province, the more eaſy.

Your employing this time of peace, in ſuch manner as will redound to the honour of the king, and the good of the province, will afford the ſtrongeſt proofs of your loyalty to his majeſty, and of your love to your country, in which you may depend upon my utmoſt aſſiſtance.

May 25, 1764. WILLIAM BULL."

May 28*th*. Thomas Shubrick, Eſq; and his family, embarked for England in the Hannah, Capt. Brewer.—31ſt, The aſſembly voted pay, for the commiſſioners employed in running the temporary line of juriſdiction between this province and North-Carolina, with proper attendants. And then reſolving to adjourn for a few weeks, his honour was adviſed to give them leave, in words to the following effect, viz. "That ſuch ample pro-"viſion having been ſo readily and chearfully made for all ſer-"vices recommended, he could not refuſe their requeſt." The general aſſembly thereupon accordingly adjourned to the 26th.—11th, Died Mrs. Mary Mazyck, the wife of Iſaac Mazyck, Eſq;—26th, The general aſſembly met, and proceeded to buſineſs. We can with pleaſure add, that this gentleman's whole conduct has given univerſal ſatisfaction here; having, by his great aſſiduity, zeal and abilities, obtained conſiderable advantages to the trade of this province, and put the unhappy diſpute, between our governor and aſſembly, in a fair way of being terminated.—July 8th, Part of the French proteſtants, who arrived here in April, having pitched upon a ſpot to ſettle on, near Long-Canes, ſet out with their families and baggage; Capt. A Likely young negro wench, belonging to a gentleman lately departed this province for [illegible], who recommends her as a very good COOK, excellent SEAMSTRESS, and capable of doing almost every kind of household business. Inquire of ROBERT WILLIAMS, jun.

St. Mark's Parish, took his feat in the commons house of assembly.—16th, Arrived here, in the Two Friends, Capt. Ball, from London, Henry Ratte, Esq; inventor of the British Parliament, for Barnstaple, with a number of people he intends to settle upon a tract of land granted him in Florida.—17th, His honour was pleased to give his assent to the following bills, viz.

An Act to empower certain commissioners therein mentioned, to keep clean and in good order and repair, the streets of Charles-Town, and for establishing water-courses in the said town;

An Act for preventing as much as may be the spreading of the Small Pox;

An Act for enabling the church-wardens and vestry of St. Andrew's parish, to dispose of the parish in the church of the said parish;

An Ordinance to appoint Mr. William Mazyck country waiter for the port of Charles-Town.

This constitution of the commons house of assembly was appointed, to consider of ways and means for erecting and endowing a Public College in this province, for the education of youth; who were directed to draw up proper plans, &c. and lay the same before the house the next session.—19th, Arthur Middleton, Esq; was married to Miss Polly Izard, daughter of Walter Izard, Esq; deceased.—25th. The Grenville Packet sailed for Falmouth.—27th. The lieutenant governor gave his assent to the two following acts, viz.

An Act, for laying an additional duty upon all negroes hereafter to be imported into this province for the time therein mentioned, to be paid by the first purchasers of such negroes.

An Act, for building a church on the new glebe-land in St. Paul's parish, and for finishing and keeping in repair the road laid out from South-Hill to Stone's Island, and from thence to Dawhoo-river, and appointing commissioners for the purposes aforesaid.

Same day, his majesty's council rejected the Tax-Bill, and a bill for reviving and continuing several acts: Upon which the following message was sent to his honour the lieutenant governor,

"May it please your honour,

"To answer to your message of yesterday, accompanied with a letter from his excellency General Gage, we inform your honour, that this house referred the same to a committee, who made a report thereupon, which we have agreed to; and we herewith send your honour a copy of the same.

By Order of the House,

25th May, 1764. RAWLINS LOWNDES, Speaker.

"The committee on the governor's message of yesterday, accompanied with a letter from his excellency General Gage, of the 2nd of last month, recommending provision to be made for the Cherokee and Chicasah Indians, in order to prevail on them to intercept a convoy of supplies from the French, to the Shawanese, Delawares, and the Indians of d'Etroit, and to assist his majesty's troops going up the Mississippi, REPORT,

THAT they have considered the said message and letter, and are of opinion, that the rejection of the tax-bill, by the council (which the house is informed of by message) must give such a shock to public credit, as, either to cause an entire stagnation, or else to put it on the most disadvantageous and scandalous footing; wherein the suppliers of the public must themselves clearly perceive, that their hopes of payment do not so much depend on the faith and honour of their natural representatives, as upon the caprice and pleasure of the council, and very often even of a majority of such as are altogether pleasemen, and have no natural tie or connection whatever with the province.

For these reasons, your committee cannot recommend to the house to enter into any expence till public credit be replaced on its proper basis, and the old and heavy debt already incurred be fully discharged, by the passing of a tax-bill: In order too, that the creditors of the province may find, while its representatives are unconstitutionally prevented from paying their just demands, that they will not countenance any further augmentation of the public debt, lest they should thereby seem tamely to suffer themselves to be made use of, only as instruments, to enrage and defraud the people."

The same day also, his honour was pleased to prorogue the general assembly by the following speech:

"Honourable gentlemen of his majesty's council,

Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the assembly,

I RETURN you my thanks for the long and constant attendance on the public business, which you have given during a very inconvenient season of the year, in which you have brought to perfection sundry bills of a very salutary tendency for the public welfare.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

The readiness which you have shewn on various occasions, in resolving to provide for matters recommended to your consideration by me, are such marks of the confidence you place in me as demand my particular thanks. I shall endeavour to deserve it by a faithful application of the sums voted, to the purposes for which they are intended.

Honourable gentlemen of his majesty's council,

Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the assembly,

After so much time spent in the attention to the public business, I doubt not but a due regard to your private affairs will render some remark acceptable to you, which I shall give you, by now putting an end to this session. Though much has been done, yet as all that was thought necessary has not been brought to an happy conclusion at this time, I must make the recess as short as possible; I therefore think proper to prorogue you to the 28th day of September next, and the General Assembly is accordingly prorogued to that time."

August 30th. Arrived the Scottish packet-boat, Capt. Bell.—September 6th, Died in St. John's parish, Berkley county, Major Reed Rowsell, aged 78 years; and about the same time, Mrs. Catherine Cordes, relict of the late Col. Thomas Cordes, aged 84; who were both natives of this province.—7th, Dorgo Rolle, Esq; embarked for St. Augustine, in the Mary, capt. Buchan, with the people he brought over.—11th, Arrived here his majesty's ship the Fowey, which brought over his excellency Governor Grant, Esq; governor of East-Florida, and landed him at St. Augustine the 29th ult.—16th, The Scots packet-boat, sailed for Falmouth.—19th. The general assembly met, being the day to which they were prorogued.—24th. Robert Rough, jun. Esq; for St. Thomas and St. Dennis, and 26th, William Mazyck, Esq; for St. Stevens, took their seats in the commons house.—28th, Died Mrs. Martha Grimke, wife of Frederick Grimke, Esq; October 6th. His honour the lieut. governor, gave his assent to "An additional to, and part of an Act, intituled, an act to regulate the trade with the Cherokee Indians, by adding the same to the limits of the parishes of this province; and to empower the commissioners to sell and dispose of such goods as are in their hands, at the value of the said act." And to "*an act for raising and granting to his majesty the sum of 200,307 l. 7 s. 3 d. and applying the sum of 36,641 l. 13 s. 7 d. CHARLES-TOWN, OCTOBER 8, 1764.

FORT Prince George, at Keowee, is to be forthwith put into a respectable condition; and instead of Fort Moore being kept up, a new one is to be erected, in some more convenient place, on Stephens's Creek; the assembly having chearfully and readily made sufficient provision for those services.

Some time in August an express was sent to the Cherokees, to ask them to assist General Gage in his operations against the Northern Indians, but they have excused themselves, on account of the hunting season, which, they say, they must improve to pay their debts.

His honour the lieutenant-governor has appointed John Rutledge, Esq; attorney-general of this province, in the room of the hon. James Moultrie, Esq; now chief justice of East-Florida, who was appointed attorney-general on the departure of David Graeme, Esq;

A Gentleman is lately arrived here from Philadelphia, with a smack, which he proposes to employ (if he meets with encouragement) in bringing all kinds of fish that are to be met with on this coast, alive to market; so that the inhabitants may supply themselves, at any hour, with any kind.

The English merchants that were at Havana, having settled their affairs, are mostly come away. The Spaniards continue to work with incredible diligence in fortifying the Cavannos, and repairing the Moro, which, by the neck of land being cut thro' whereon it is situated, is now on an island. The dock-yards there have been put into such compleat order, that two very fine 80 gun ships, to mount their cannon on two decks, are in great forwardness. The 28th ult. there were only four 74-gun ships, and two frigates at that port, under the command of a commodore. The Spaniards then had plenty of provisions and naval stores, many English vessels having lately arrived. And the streets of Havana were full of British beggars, who had deserted from our fleet and army while there, and are now refused employ, even for the necessaries of life.

From St. Augustine we learn, that the civil government of that colony will soon be form'd; that new settlers arrive fast from all parts; and that the castle, which is capable of mounting 72 pieces of cannon, already has 40 mounted.

The French Protestants at New-Bourdeaux in Hillsborough township, write of the 27th past, that they have lately been sickly and very much troubled with boils, yet they had near finished about a dozen huts, and intended soon to set about a fort, to protect them against any Indians that might be troublesome. They are of opinion, that the lands they have obtained will produce good VINES, SILK, (having met with many mulberry trees) and HEMP, of which last article, they say, they would raise a good deal, the ensuing year, if they were supplied, or had the means to supply themselves, with seed.

On Sunday last died, Alexander Broughton, Esq;
